

Literary efforts currently under way in Cherokee

- Distribution of books to preschoolers at Headstart and Early Childhood Learning Center by Kiwanis.
- Storytime and other age appropriate programming at the public library.
- Summer reading program at the public library.
- Shut in delivery from the public library.
- Computer classes (free) at the public library.
- Book discussion group sponsored by the local bookstore.
- Adult literacy tutoring, GED program at WI T.
- Outreach programs for preschoolers (preschools, day cares, Headstart etc.) by the public library.
- Book-It project in conjunction with Pizza Hut through the school district.
- Book fairs open to the public at the schools.
- Read aloud night involving the community at the elementary schools.
- Read 1 million minutes program through the schools.
- Outreach by the public library to the clients of the Boys and Girls Home and YES juvenile detention center.
- Programming for the adult disabled clients of Cherry House by the Readers R Us group at the public library.
- Programs for local book clubs and other community groups by library staff.
- Books for new babies sponsored by the library, hospital, and school district.
- Cherokee Area Archives (local history) slide shows for community programming.